

What does the Word “love” mean to you?

It's very difficult for me and probably for everyone in the world to describe what the Word “love” means to us because this word expresses a feeling so strong and strange that is very difficult to express in words.

For me, love is the most beautiful feeling in the world, with love everything around you is fine, you feel happy, enthusiastic and take on the world. Many people don't understand love but whether you want it or not you will feel it sooner or later.

For me love is base on 4 things:

Learning to make your partner the happiest person in the world

Ogling your partner every time you see them

Valuing mutually more than anything in the world

Enjoying every moment you spend with that person

Those things and a thousand more are what love represents.

Love is the best feeling in the world, but this is just a feeling.

“Love is a feeling, don't try to understand it, only feel it”
